Dear Supportive Manager,

As you know I have worked hard over the years to develop the technical skills I need to do my job. I've put my qualifications into good use and feel I have done very well so far.

There are times when I feel I could do with more confidence in the decisions I make and feel more comfortable in the situations I am in. I have found a program that will help me refine my soft, social and emotional skills to give me the advantage I need to be at my best.

The investment is $1295 for the 5 month program. As it will give the organisation and myself such benefit, I'm hoping you can see it as part of my development here and endorse my enrolment.

Someone that recently completed RNP said "This Program has helped me to better identify and manage my network. It has given me the confidence and skills to nurture my network better and give me confidence to "realise my potential".

How good is that! I need to commit to 4 sessions, two face to face and two webinars with some work in between on a customised micro learning app to help embed the learnings.

Here is the link to more details. There are only 25 places so I need to register soon.

Thanks a million for investing in me p.s. Relatus can tailor these for in-house too, so if you think there are more of us here that could benefit I can arrange a meeting for us?

Objective

Take charge of your career and gain skills, refine behaviours and work on actions that will help you succeed.

The program will;

- Give you the techniques to network, relate and truly engage effectively (based on psychology, sociology and science)
- Remove reluctance, awkwardness and aversion to representing yourself and your business
- Ensure activity is matched to opportunities (so you stop wasting your time and money out there)
- Help you to develop a personalised relationship networking strategy (and reap the rewards)
